

Senator

1970 SENATOR

God of all
Heavenly Father
I thank you

Grace King

God of all
Heavenly Father
I thank you for your love and grace to all who believe in you and your Son
Jesus Christ
who died for us and were buried and rose again for our redemption and forgiveness of all unrighteousness according to the riches of his grace whom he has raised from the dead and seated at his right hand in heaven above all principalities and powers and authorities and every name that is named not only in this world but also in the world to come and he has put all things under his feet
and he is the head of the church
which is his body the fullness of himself in whom all things live and move
and have their being and he has chosen himself as the head
of the church
to cleanse it by the word of water
by the word and by the Spirit with the word and all things in the church shall be renewed in himself that he may present to himself the church
his glorious body without stain
or wrinkle
or anything of the kind
but that it should be holy and blameless
without spot
and that he may present it to himself
in glory without stain
or wrinkle
or anything of the kind
but that it should be
holy and blameless
without spot
and that he may
present it to himself
in glory

Grace King
Sister

joyce, Here's a reminder to let you know, how success has open the door. As you head forward the stars; remember this and all my prayers Always.
Jane.

Joyce,
you are a very nice girl and I hope to know you will continue to be that way.
If I can help you in any way just call on me.

Theme: Revival of Spirit

*To Joyce
To a very nice person I wish you the best year of all.
ada*

*A year of people; a year of changes Education in school; learning and experience out of school Students concerned with political and social disorders Kids growing and looking to themselves for the answers
A desperate try for individualism An intangible enthusiasm made students think Respect for each individual gained strength
The spirit generated made for better unity in the school Students living for the moment; to the future*

To a great girl with sun always nice to me

Dedicated to Mr. Jansen

George
you is a very nice girl and I hope you continue on being nice and sweet Love always Elizabeth

Please please listen to me children
 Please please listen to me children
 Please please listen to me children
 You are the ones who will rule the world

Please please listen to me children
 Please please listen to me children
 Please please listen to me children
 Please my children
 Please children

Gayle,
It has been a pleasure being a friend of yours for so many years, and wish you the best of luck in your future.

Friends always,
Sharon L. Pope

America where are you now
Don't you care about your sons and daughters Don't you know we need you now
We can't fight alone against the monster

Joise,
It has been nice having you in math and English even if we had a teacher like old lady white!

"Oh, Joyce, to the dear, knowing you this is the best thing you will do for you. You will need the help you need in the future."

ACTIVITIES

Georgia Olsen and Andre Arnette help Miss Warren in choosing the best pictures and at the same time explain to Robin King and Patti Kramer the proper things to look for when deciding on pictures.

Ginny Yockey, Gayle Cliett, Wendy Draud, Nancy Scott and Claudia Kirby enjoy the relaxed atmosphere and delicious goodies at one of many annual parties.

Candy Carpenter, Jimmy Allen, Bubba Byrd and Mary Anne Sale linger in the hall as long as possible before going into the Annual room to start putting together the index of 1970 Senator.

Candy Wilson, Kathi Wilson, and Susan Pope offer their ideas on how to lay out an ad section, as Michele Thomason and Bubba Kennard listen, ready to give theirs.

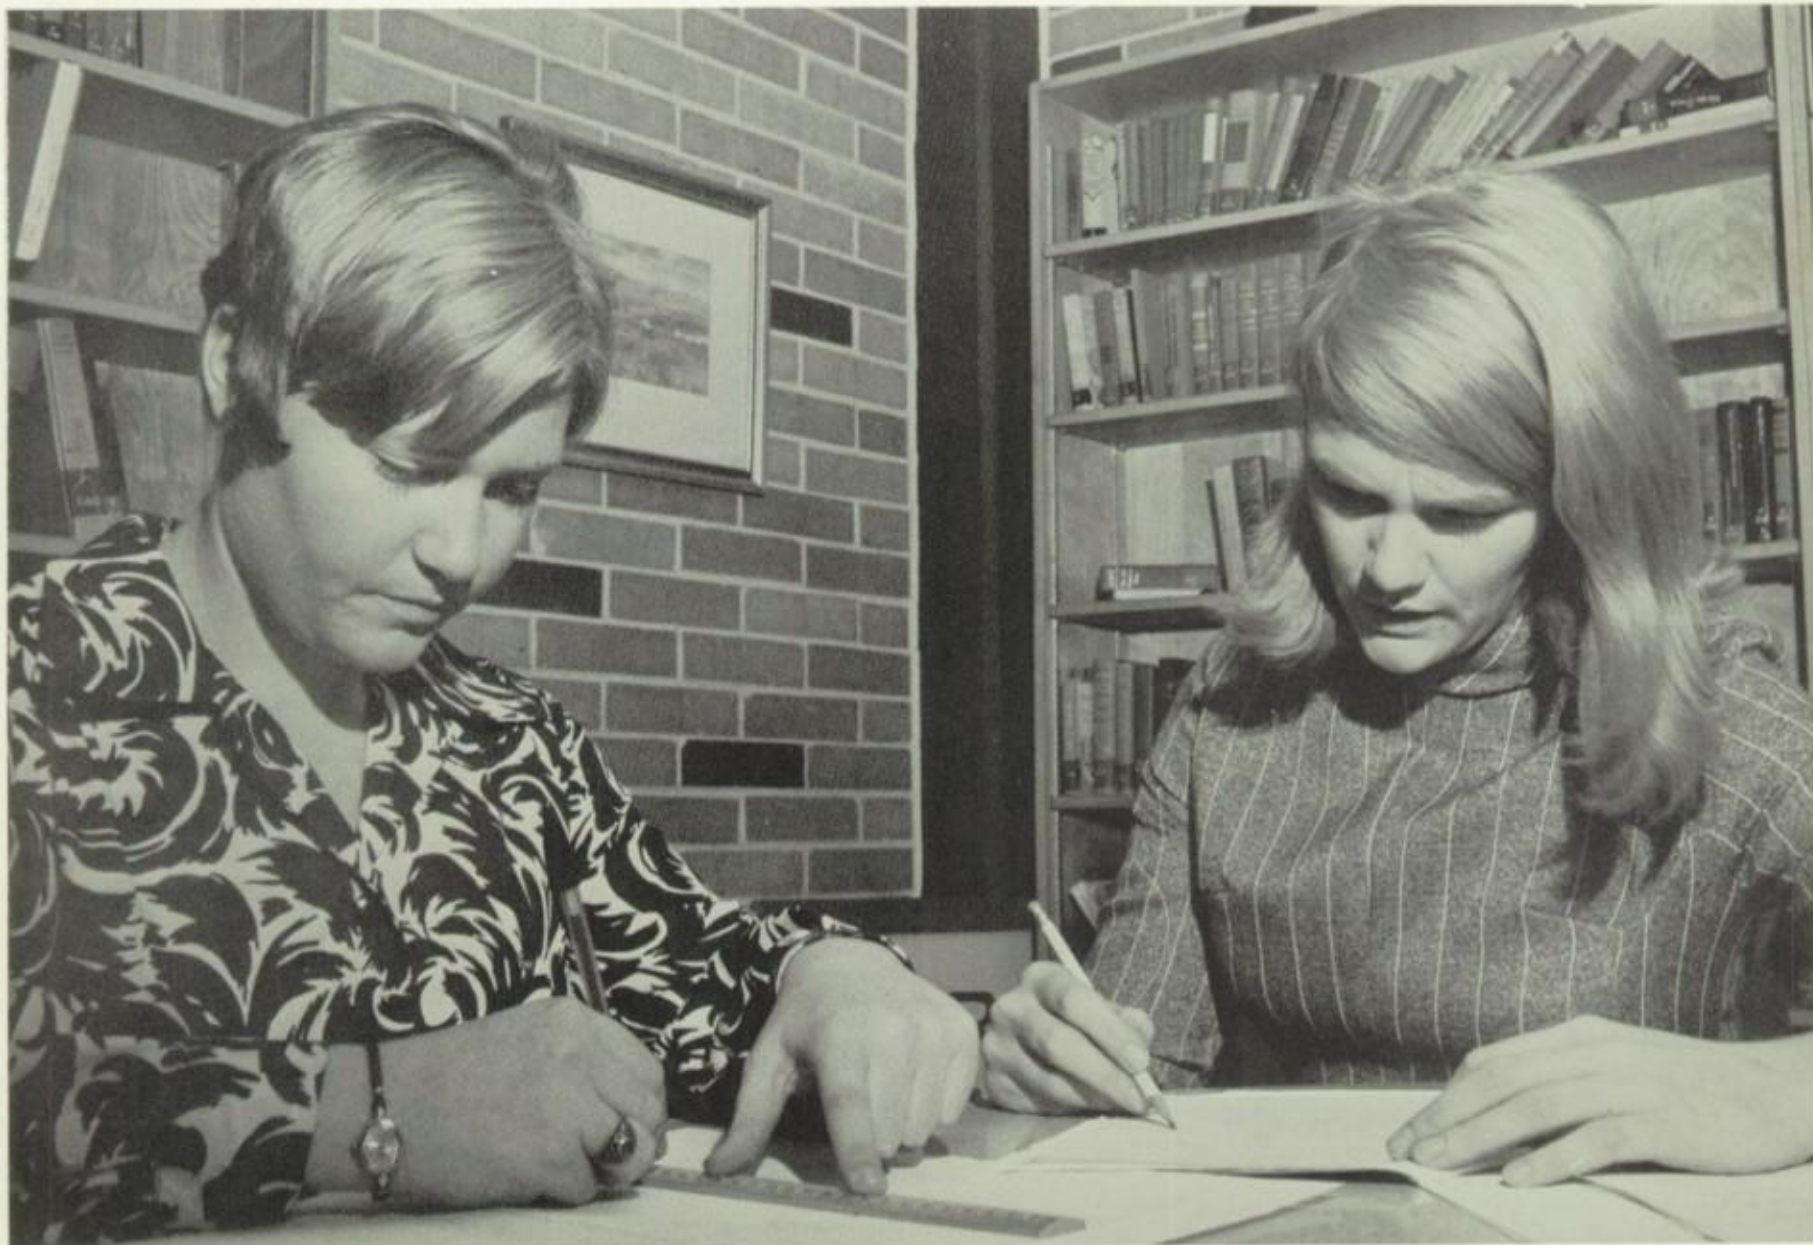

Annual

Editor—Drew Wills
Co-Editors—Ginny Cook, Susan Parrish
Sponsors—Miss Hinkle and Miss Warren

Money crisis get staff on its feet quickly Large staff at first cumbersome Became united team as the real work began Looming deadlines meant Saturday workdays
The staff scattered across Drew's living room Amid triplicates, pictures, and staff favorite, M & M's Drew, Ginny, and Susan worked weekends and late nights
New spreads added for theme and honoring individuals Stan and Mr. Holt provided humorous comments To ease the tension on nerve-racking picture days Staff looked forward to Mr. Carpenters visits Work done, the kid-again reward of Annual parties

Mr. Friend points out to Sponsor Miss Hinkle the features of the Senator that he likes best and congratulates co-editors Ginny Cook and Susan Parrish and Editor Drew Wills on a job well done.

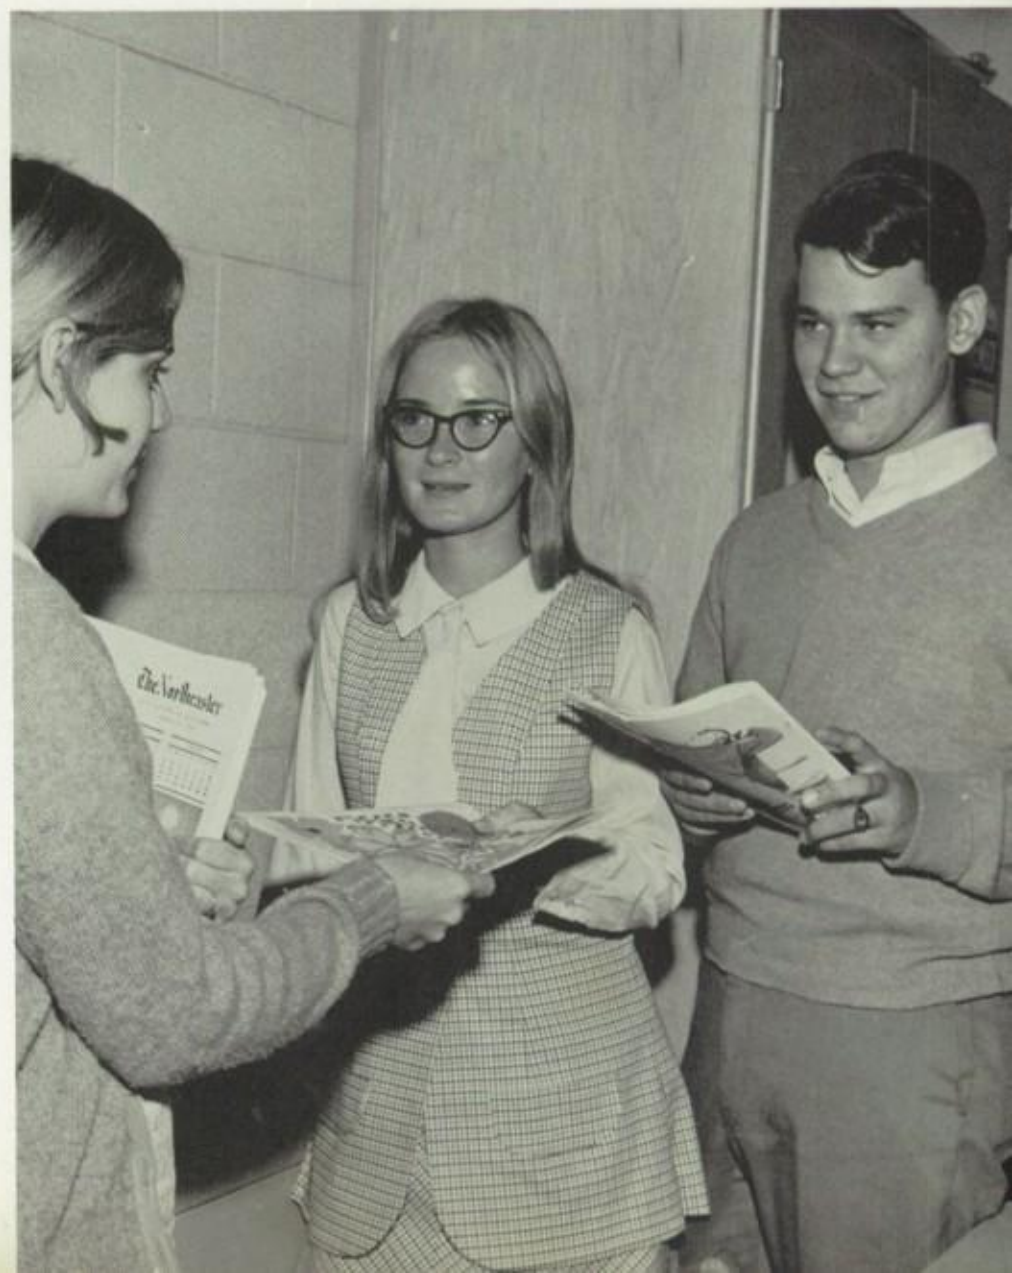

Miss Ramers and Wanda Strickland finish the jobs of drawing layouts and correcting copy for the next edition of the Northeaster.

Football

United for one of Fletcher's most memorable seasons
 Thirty five players came back against injuries Smashed low pre-season ratings based on Jamboree Team work and outstanding individual performance Evident to supporters who followed Senators to Panama Brought spectacular victories in opening games Victory over Ribault inspired Fletcher Spirit Anxious, keyed-up players watched continuous rain
 On morning of the traditional Wolfson conflict Beautiful performance gave Senators victory Rain in second half seemed to improve Senators' game Rain-soaked student body poured onto field

Senators are jubilant as Helldrivers run away with the score in the spectacular Homecoming game against Parker.

Row 1—Dain Overcash; Ricky Tarkington; Page Hatcher; Jesse Crews; Buddy McCormick; Mark Englert; David Willoughby; Bubba Byrd.
 Row 2—Roderick Wilson; Kurt Simpson; Jimmy Harrison; Willie Chao; Bruce Fifer; Mike Lee; Willard Dudley; Hal Millen. Row 3—Brad

 Co-captain; Neil McCormick, Manager. Row 5—Steve McCoy; Mike Robinson; George Olsen; Lanny Taylor; Tim Landrum; Arthur Murray; Steve Hughes.

Senator Bruce Fifer helps defensive halfback Buddy McCormick stop a Forrest rebel for no gain early in the game that turned out to be Fletcher's disappointing first conference defeat of the season after three victories in a row over Ribault, Wolfson, and Lee.

In an embarrassing game for Parker, Player of the Year Phil Atter is stopped by Senator Mike Lee before he can break away.

Football Scores

Panama	26	Fletcher	7
Ribault	7	Fletcher	14
Wolfson	7	Fletcher	17
Lee	6	Fletcher	30
Forrest	13	Fletcher	3
Paxon	20	Fletcher	7
Englewood	6	Fletcher	17
Jackson	19	Fletcher	14
Parker	0	Fletcher	17
Raines	6	Fletcher	0

Football

Senators thoroughly enjoyed routing Lee Five interceptions, four touchdowns, a field goal Feeling of invincibility, sports writers' praise Followed by a disappointing loss to Forrest Crucial game in Conference competition
 Low team morale put a damper on Paxson performance Robbed Senators of their determined confidence Three weeks before Englewood game recharged team unity Senators determined to spoil Englewood's Homecoming Tarkington opened game with his finest field goal
 After the half, cold weather and sure Fletcher victory Englewood's Homecoming crowd thinned to nothing

Bobby Cinotti, who entered the season late due to an injury incurred, chops down a "log" in the Parker game.

Best offensive lineman Jimmy Allen and junior George Olsen share a minute of exhaustion and pride during a home game.

Steve Hughes, voted Most Valuable Player for his skillful pass receiving, is out in the open for a big gain in the Homecoming game.

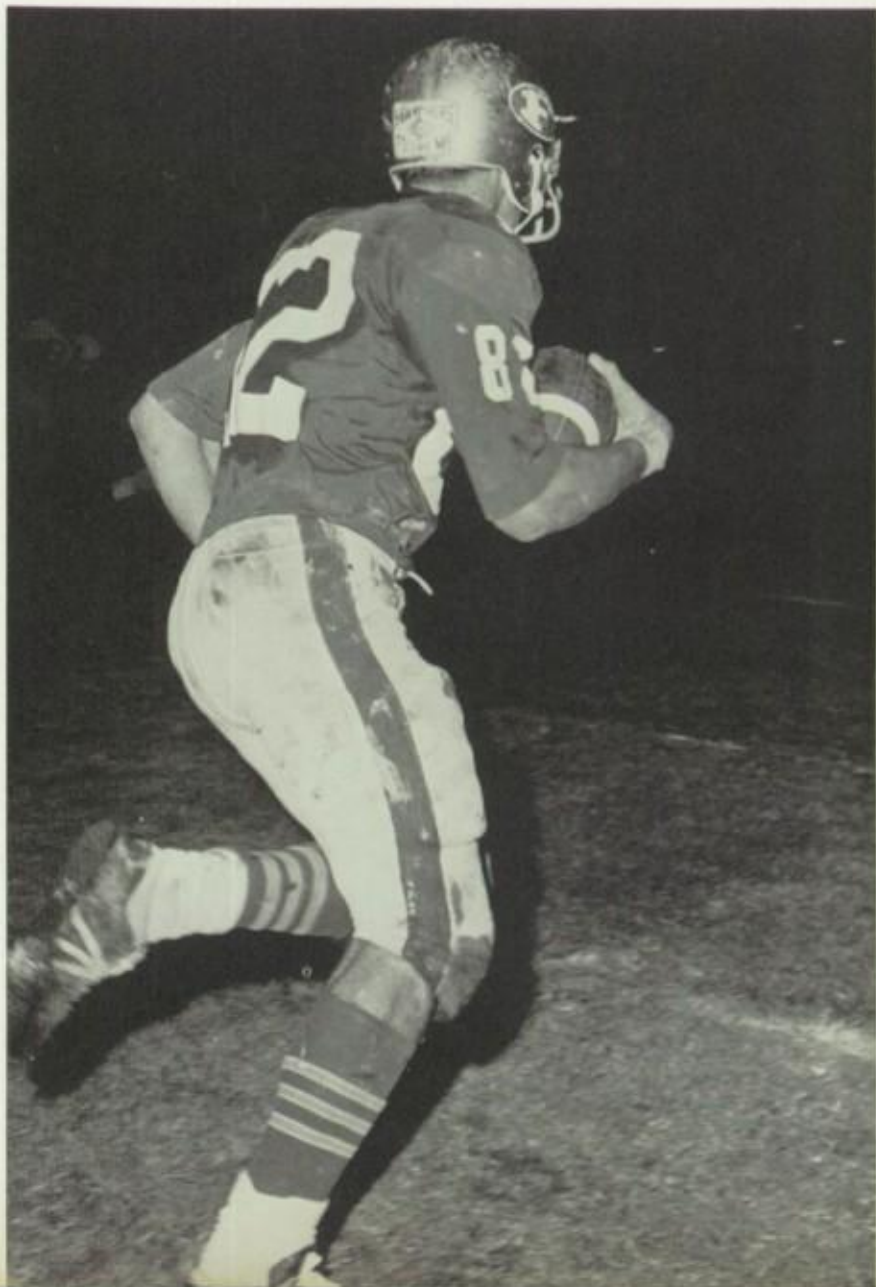

The unusual team unity of the 1969 Senators was perhaps strongest as the players joined for a prayer before facing the tough challenge of coming up from behind or holding a hard-won lead in the second half against opponents that often outweighed and outnumbered them.

Co-captain Tim Ellis, praised by sports writers for his passing game, fights for an extra yard.

Most Valuable Player Page Hatcher streaks down the sideline in a spectacular punt return in the Parker game.

Football

A new confidence and team spirit for Jackson game
We proved toughest opponent Jackson faced Sports writers astounded at Senators' toughness Climax of season was Homecoming Parker game
One of the biggest victories in Fletcher's history Raines game bitter closing of a colorful season Seniors painfully walked off field for last time Page Hatcher and Steve Hughes named most valuable Original thirty five received sweaters and caps Coach Taylor said of the 1969 Senators:
"They're little but they hit hard scrap every minute and just don't know what it is to give up."

Mike Robinson, on his way to score, rounds the end in an attempt to break away from the Englewood Rams.

Labana Gunn, Yolanda McGinnis, Becky Hansen, Mr. Koons, Ron Crane, Laura Moore, Mary Taylor, Jeff Heftner, Stephanie Kinsey, Starling Sanderford, and Phil Morris comprise Fletcher's 1969-70 Orchestra.

During registration day in August, Kay-Lynn Stone and Robert Caudill discuss their schedules.

August and Registration bring a Surfing Club and a changed Orchestra

Registration turned thoughts to school a week early
 A warm day on the beach spent in massive lines Top priority in registering awarded to Seniors School days redivided into seven periods New lunch-study hall periods confused many Homeroom newly incorporated into first period Student Council help increased efficiency Lockers and locks put off until September Fletcher gained a new orchestra director: Mr. Koons Rumors formed of starting a surfing club at Fletcher
 And so, with the start of a new year of school, A fresh countdown to "next summer" began.

Dan Jacobson flaunts reports that all remedial math classes had been filled in spite of his early arrival to registration.

Mrs. Fisher finds herself surrounded by Srs. Bruce Fifer, Rick Wilkinson, Damon Smith, Leo Sheridan, and Chuck Clark.

Breakfast Klub supports fletcher football games plus Panama City Spirit

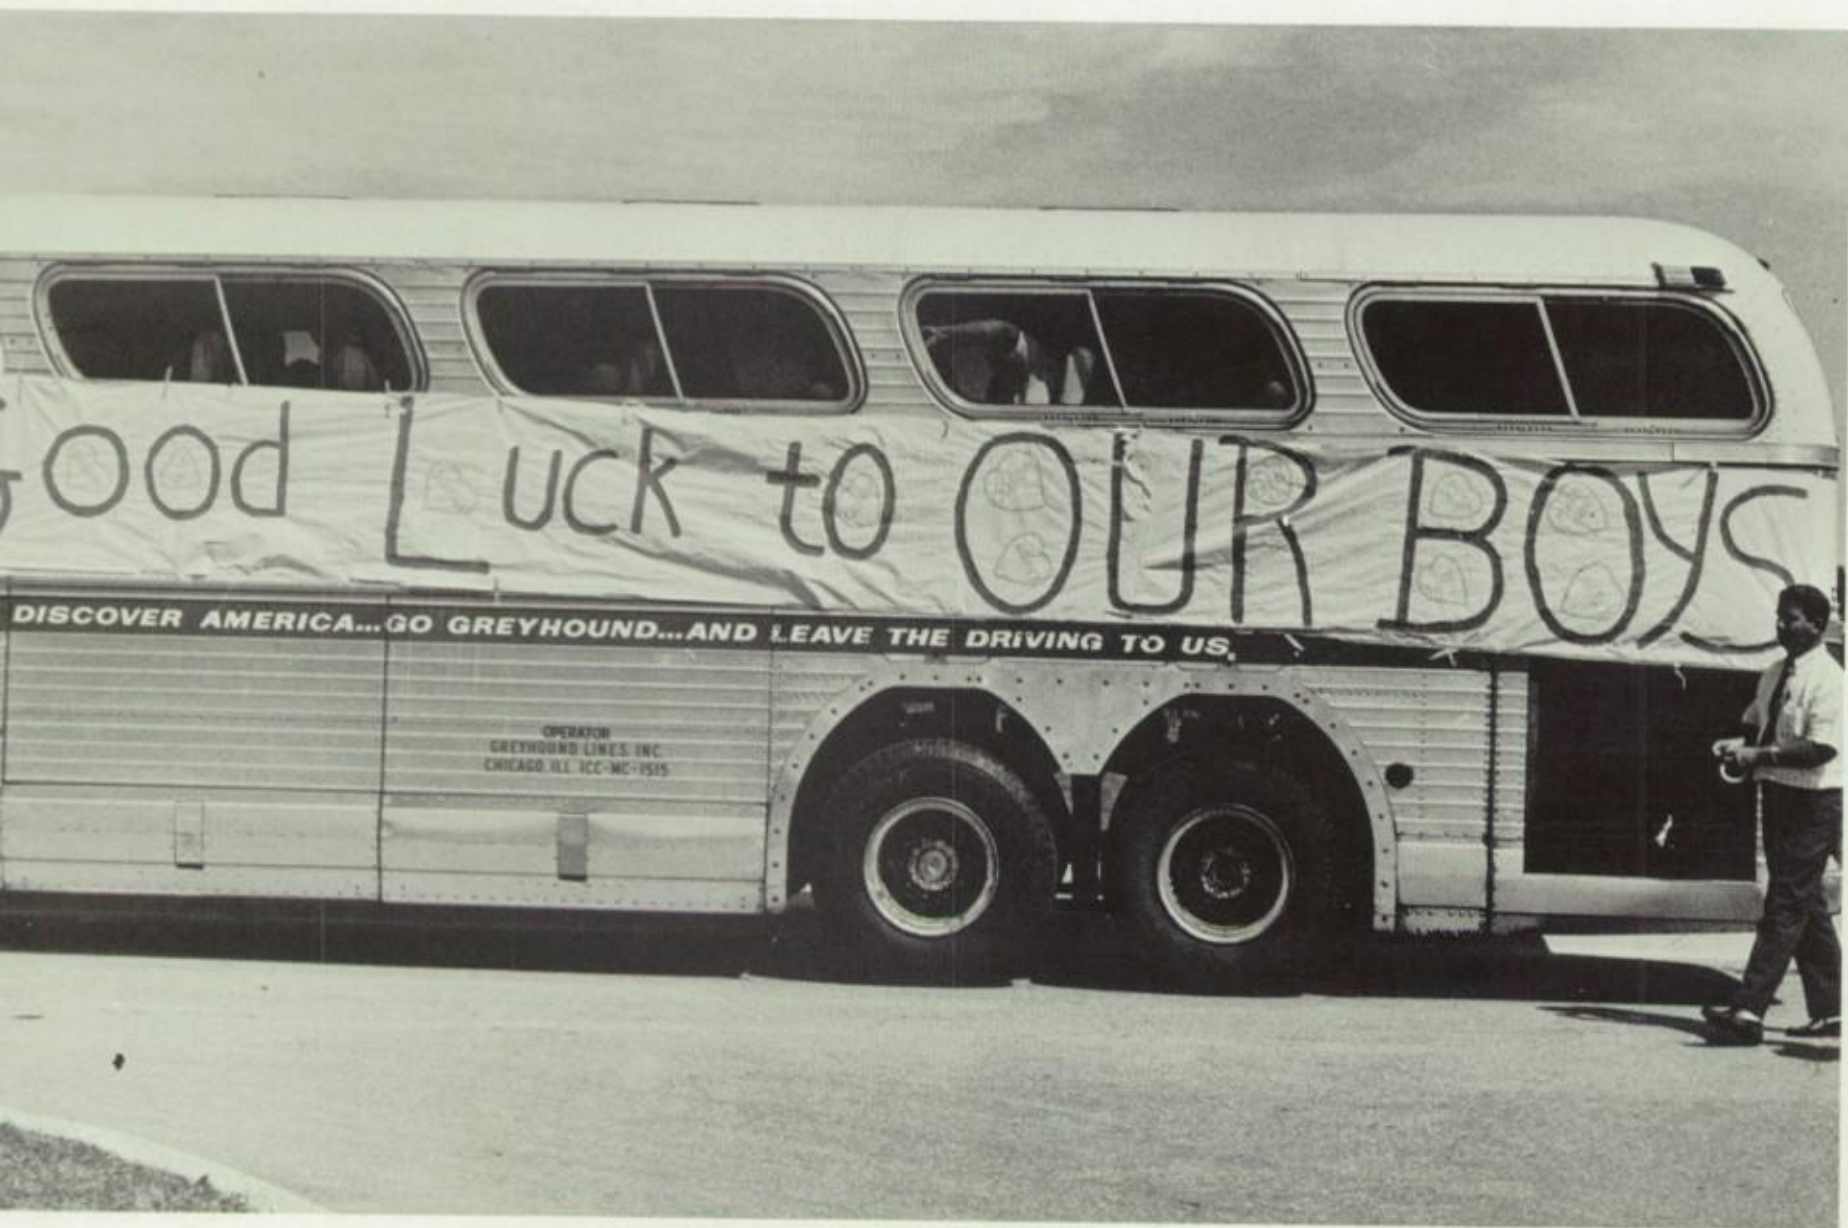

Key Club sponsored Breakfast Klub for spirit Every Friday started off with enthusiasm Dancing resumed with permission Anchor girls made original spirit tags
First year, donuts brought hot from bakery Record attendance depleted supply of coke Switched from community center to cafeteria Football players allowed to enter free Panama City caravan promoted by Key Club Left school at 11 o'clock Friday morning Fifteen cars made the trip Stayed at Holiday Inn outside of Panama City

Homecoming '69 includes Breakfast Klub and The Celestial Probe.

Spirit Club's purple and white uniforms crowd the cafeteria at on-the-campus Breakfast Klubs.

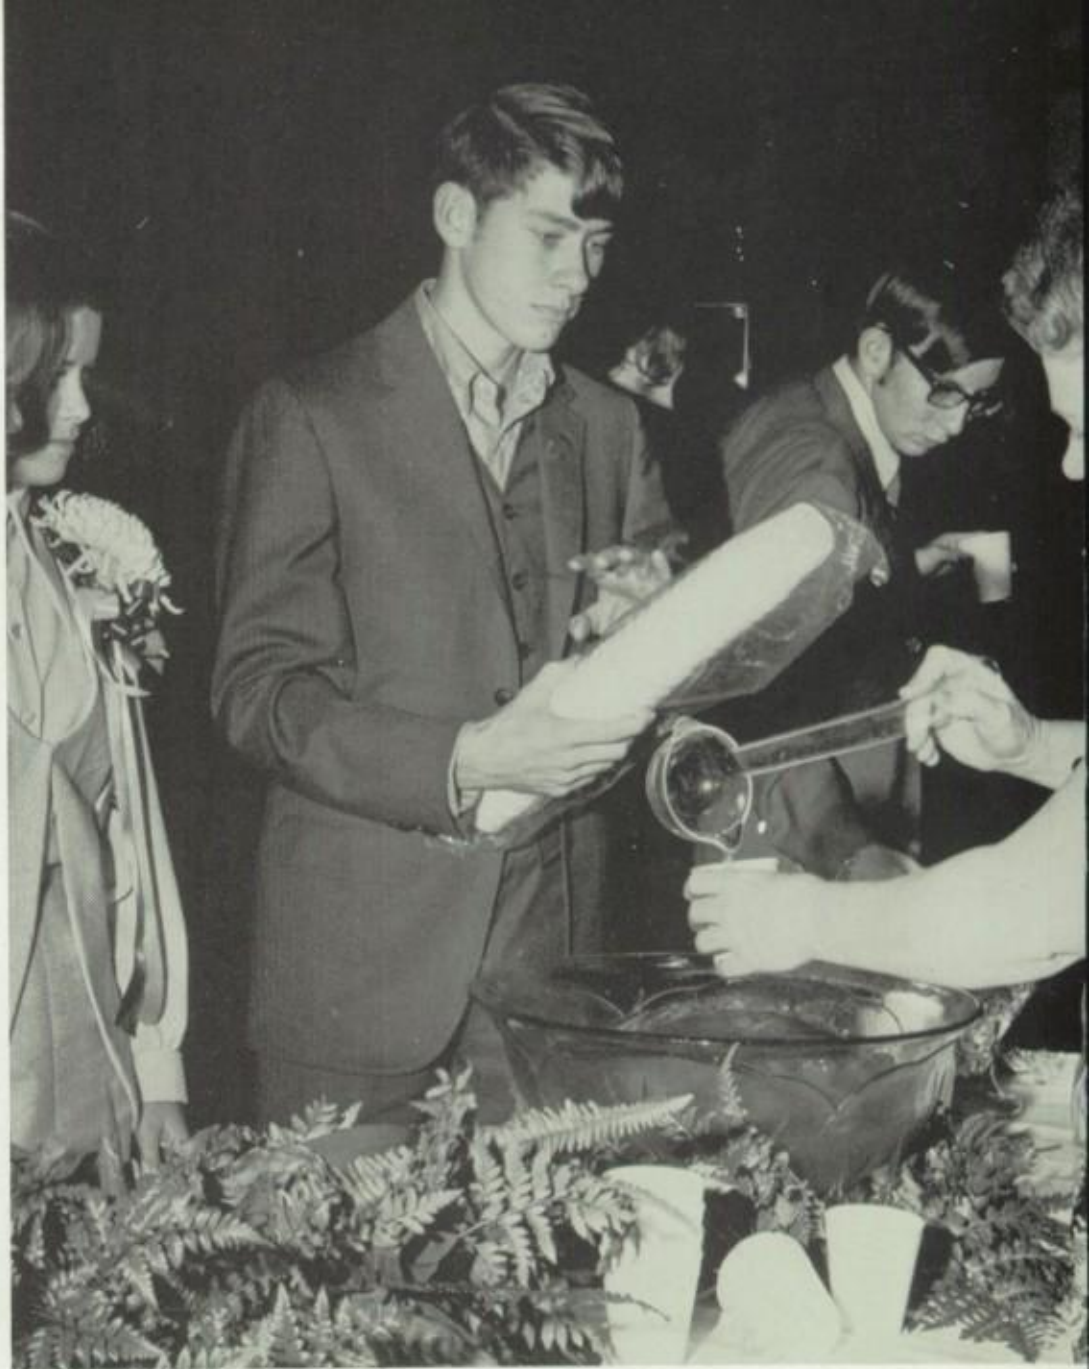

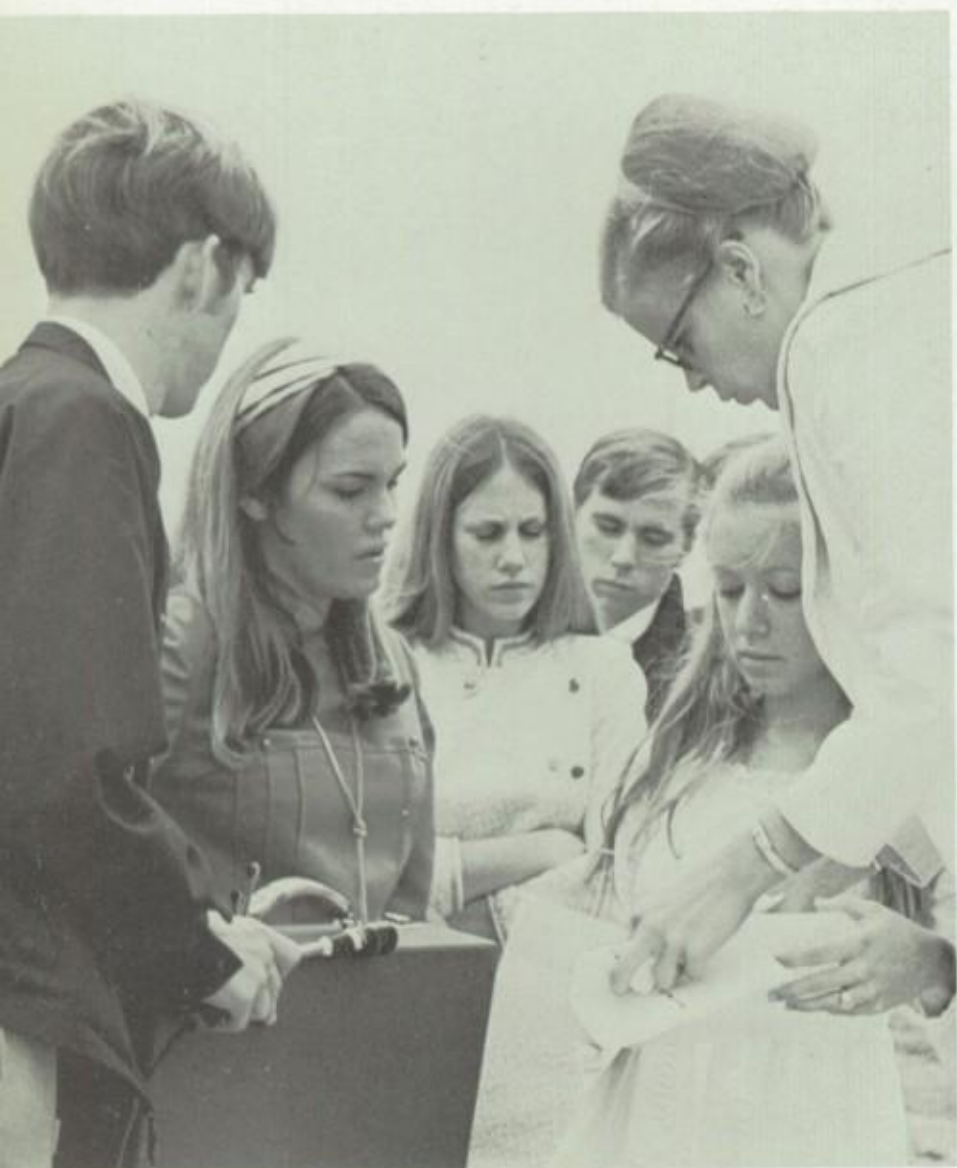

While the Fletcher team left alone for Panama City, preparations were made for a caravan of fifteen cars, crowded with spirit.

A farewell to the Fletcher football team includes cheerleaders' cry for victory.

Miss Searcy patiently explains Homecoming night procedures to confused members of the court during a hectic rehearsal the day before.

At the victory dance following the game, Mike Cordray takes time out from dancing and opens a stack of cups while waiting to sample the punch.

First runners-up Kathy Deason and Vincent Roland, standing in for Jimmy Harrison; Homecoming Queen MaryAnne Sale; Steve Slater standing in for King, Tim Ellis; Second runners-up Marcie Jackson and Dicky Lambert, standing in for Steve Hughes.

Hardworking PTA members tempt hungry students with their appetizing food at the annual barbecue preceding the game.

 Homecoming started Thanksgiving holiday with a bang

Second semester brings brazilian amigos to Fletcher

Operation Amigo's unique excitement—only at Fletcher Forty Brazilian students met their new beach families “My English is many bad” heard often School comparisons made while attending classes Learned about Jacksonville, the Beaches, and Mayport Victorious game preceeded special Amigo dance Steppenwolf interested all Amigos
All thumbs faced upward in approval of Marineland Regency Square alone filled many suitcases Three private parties daily Cramming in time to be with the foreigners Tears were abundant at 4:30 a.m. as “chows” were said

All amigo names shaping Brazil decorated the school dance.

During the welcome assembly Fletcher females shout their approval of Nancy Scott's Mario Luiz and Mario Paiva.

Jose Paulo, an only child, is welcomed by four Murphy's pictured and five more to meet.

Jeanette Fricke and Patty Potter quiz Mauricio Meirelles on his country.

Teresa McFarlane and brother see their new sister, Rosalie for the first time.

Fletcher's spirit revival begins uniquely in '70

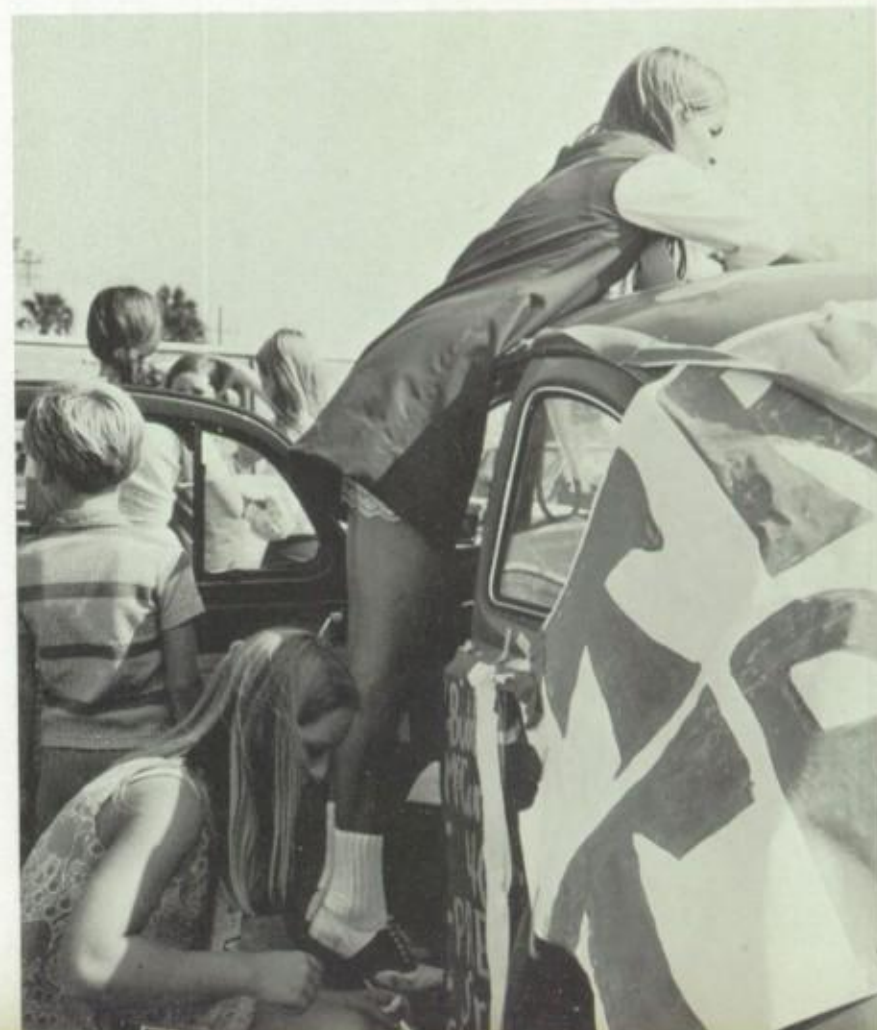

An empty cafeteria adorned with original campaign slogans reflects the enthusiasm of hopeful candidates during October class elections.

Donna Sharpless secures the last streamer before a big parade.

The Spirit Revival in the style of 1970

For starters, Mr. Friend initiated total involvement
 A caravan of "Fletcher Spirit" supported Panama game Key Club began spirit campaign with "Cram the Rams" Junior Girls highlighted autumn with a Fall Fantasy Newly formed Spirit Club met growing enthusiasm Combined assemblies showed school spirit in action Faculty spirit proved essential in all activities United student body meant smooth teacher changeover Cheerleader sponsored "links" won by Senior Class Amigos soon felt the friendly Fletcher Spirit Total awareness and unmarred confidence marked DUF

Mr. Carter and Mrs. Dryden bridge the generation gap during Homecoming's Senator Snarl.

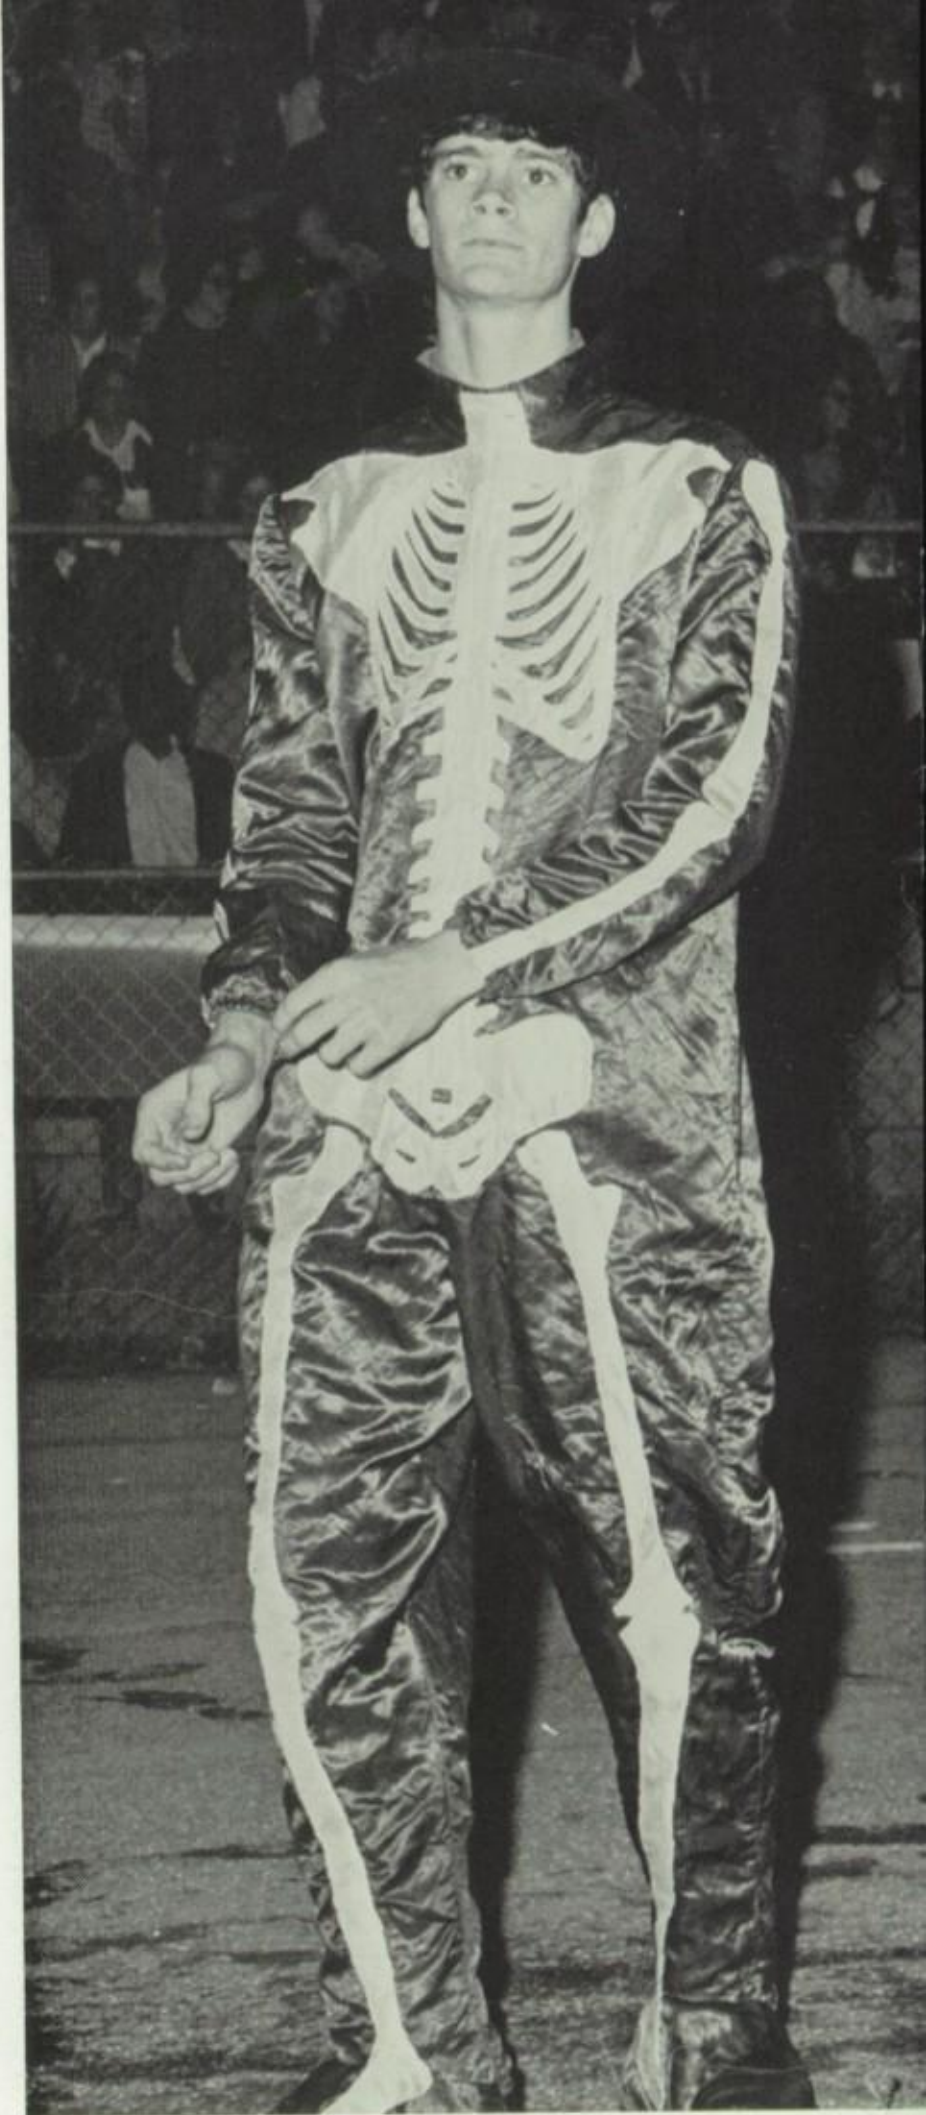

Fletcher's own interpretation of the "big bad wolf" successfully anchored school before the Wolfson game.

School spirit and pride are reborn at Fletcher during school year 1970

An outstanding rebirth of spirit in 1970
Pride demonstrated at all school functions Game days began with name tags for team
A shrill whistle motivates students to spirit yell Spirit is contagious at weekly pep sessions Football parades return after many year's absence Breakfast Club again initiated to heighten spirit School dances occur with great frequency Homecoming and prom are extremely successful School beautification—a united project Renewed pride involves Fletcher completely Students join hands to better their Alma Mater

"What do we eat—Wolfmeat!", cries Fletcher supporters.

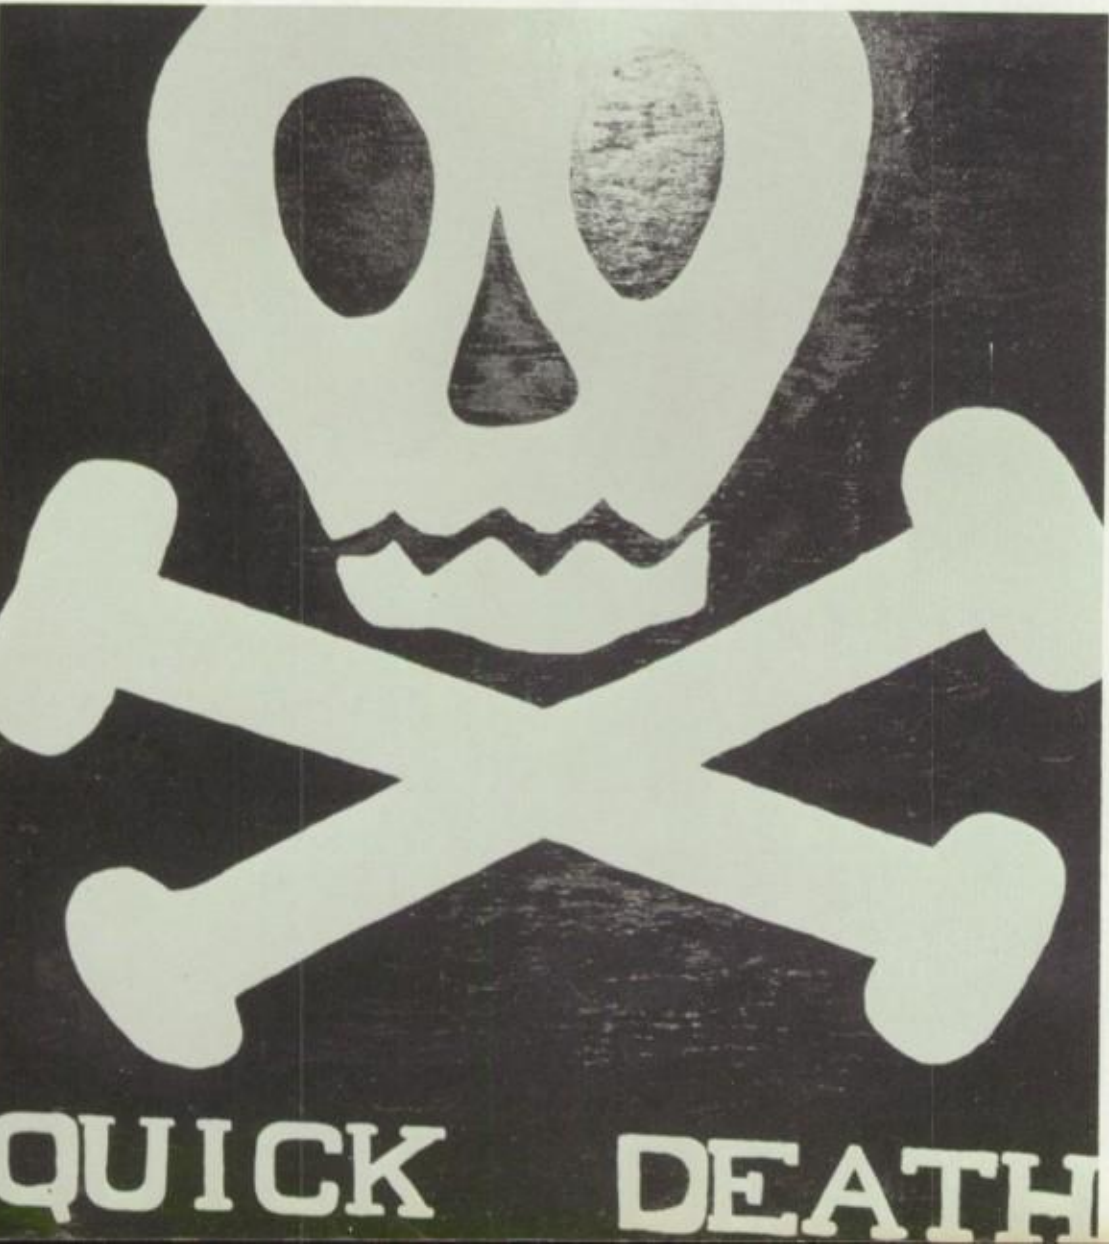

Skeleton Mike Sullivan intently watches Fletcher move the ball.

Laurie Blemel introduces other members of the newly established Surfer Club during their skit in Senator Snarl.

"Quick Death Crossbones" symbolizes football spirit during Anchor's spirit week.

Mr. Ruffin, transferred in September, and Mr. Kitchens, the new assistant principal discuss the different policies at Fletcher.

Miss Dudley, new psychology teacher, makes a good impression on her classes.

Fletcher welcomes new teachers the 2nd semester

Miss Wiggins, the Spanish teacher, requires a lot of her classes.

Mrs. Morgan prepares her lesson plan for the day.

Mrs. Johnson, a new science teacher, becomes wrapped up in her class discussion.

Dorothy Conley, Miss Senior Class, roses and trophy in arms, proudly takes her first walk as the winner of the 1969-1970 Miss Fletcher contest.

Miss Fletcher

Opening night, March 22, 1969
 Largest pageant in Fletcher history—29 contestants Theme, "A Girl Must Be Pretty"
 Male escorts, Tim Ellis, Tim Bradford, and Al Howard Miss Fletcher-to-be lost her contact lens on stage Various props—bagpipes, a motorcycle, a dog Dorothy Conley became Miss Fletcher at 1:30 a.m.
 Dorothy also placed in the "Miss Senior High" Runner-ups were Michele Thomason and Ginny Cook Girls voted Kathy Deason "Miss Congeniality" Nancy Malone named "Most Talented" Roses and tears ended a memorable night

Michele Thomason, first runner-up, relaxes after contest tension.

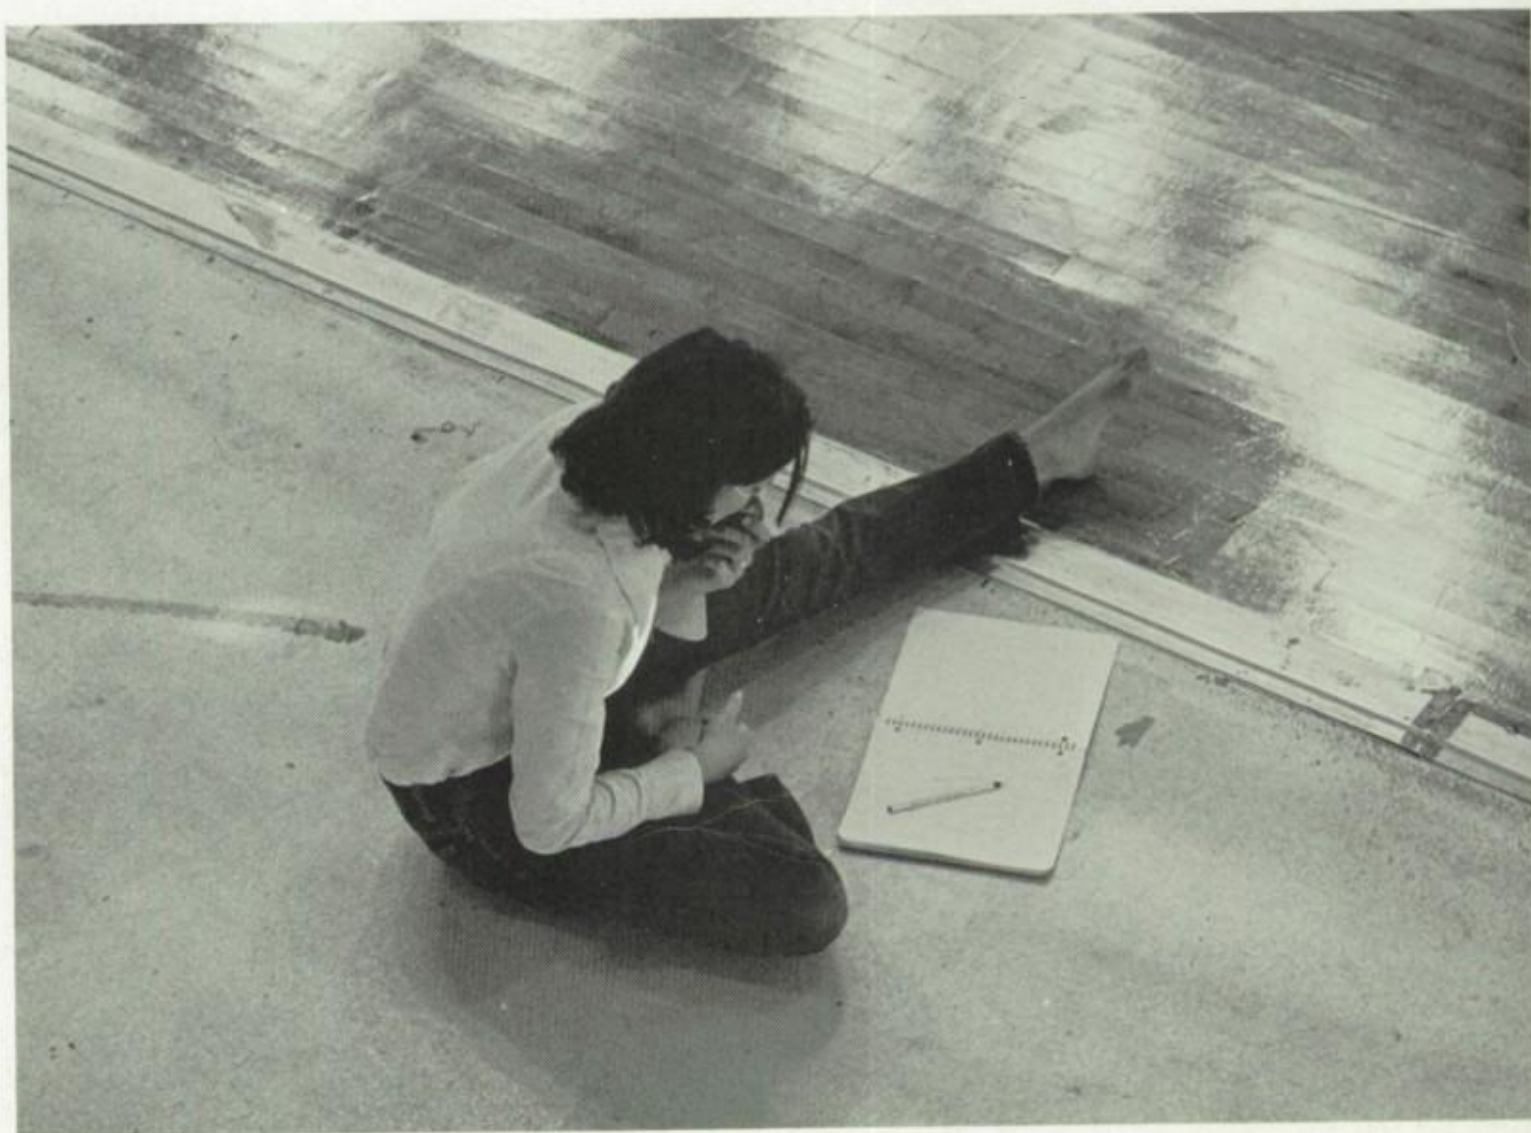

Ginny Cook, second runner-up, does a dance to "Goofus".

Jungle scenes and palms create tropical setting for a Tahitian Twilight

Called the most fabulous prom in Fletcher's history Long nights spent kneeling over endless jungles Painting 300 feet of mural to encircle the dance floor
Mr. Franke built tiki gods with flashing eyes Mrs. O'Keefe secured permission for a 2-day decorating Eve of the prom, juniors sat on scattered lumber Yawning and talking about the next night
Tim's ingenuity created the "dream" tropical island Rolling grass, palm trees, coconuts, a spotlit pond
The beat of In A Gadda Da Vida, flaming torches
As couples crossed island bridge into Tahitian night Next morning, the vast emptiness of the auditorium

Debbie Franke, Christa Murphy, and Michele Douglas work on the gaping tiki god mouth that will serve as a punch table.

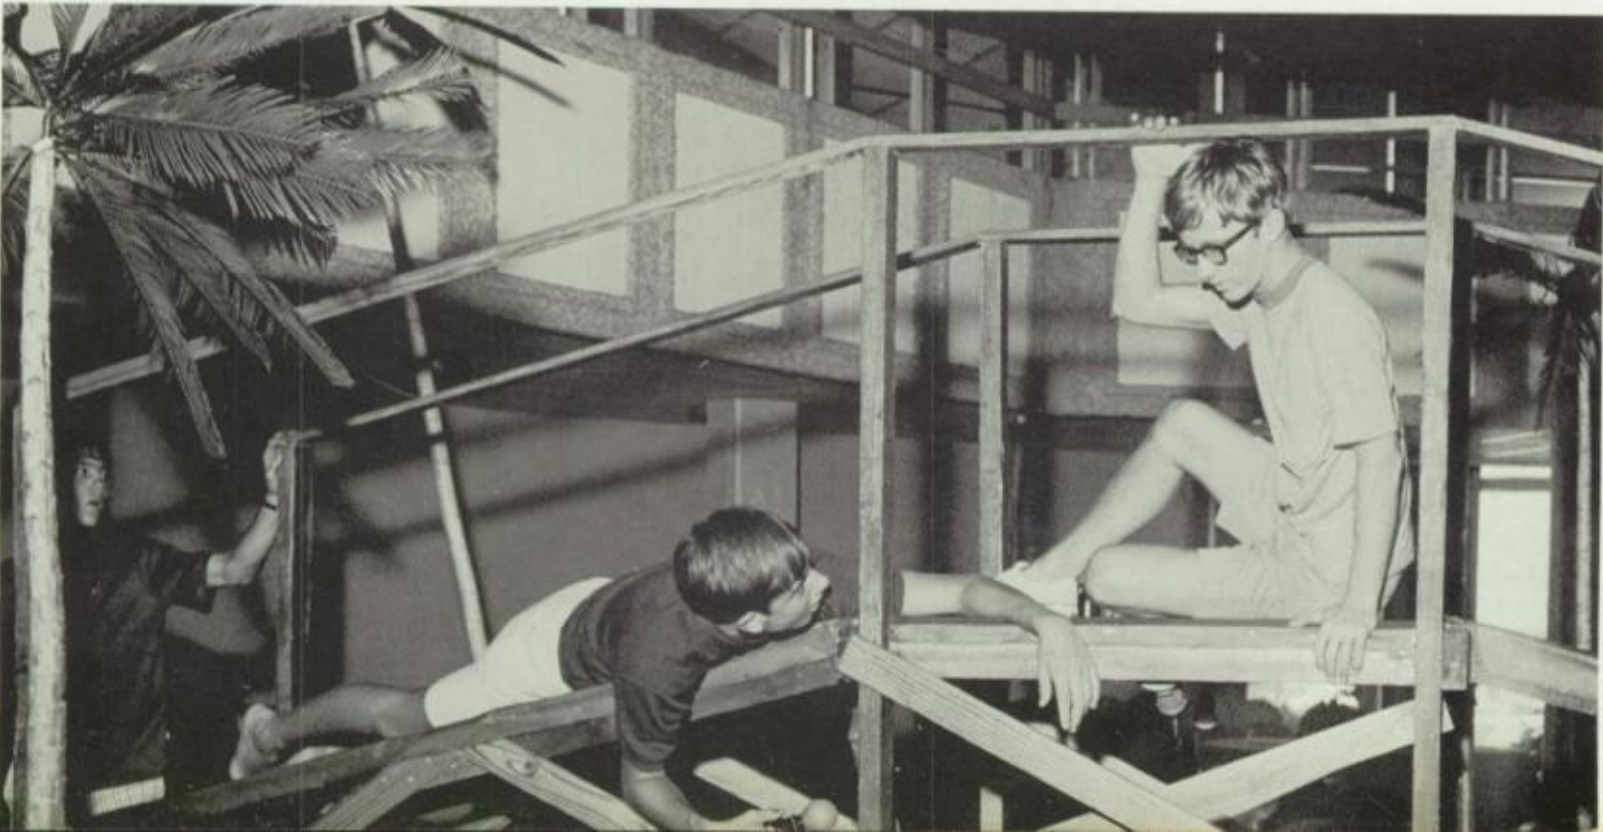

Month before the prom, chairman Candy Carpenter spends an afternoon dreaming up ideas to transform the coliseum.

Juniors struggle to secure the 300 feet of jungle mural they have spent months painting.

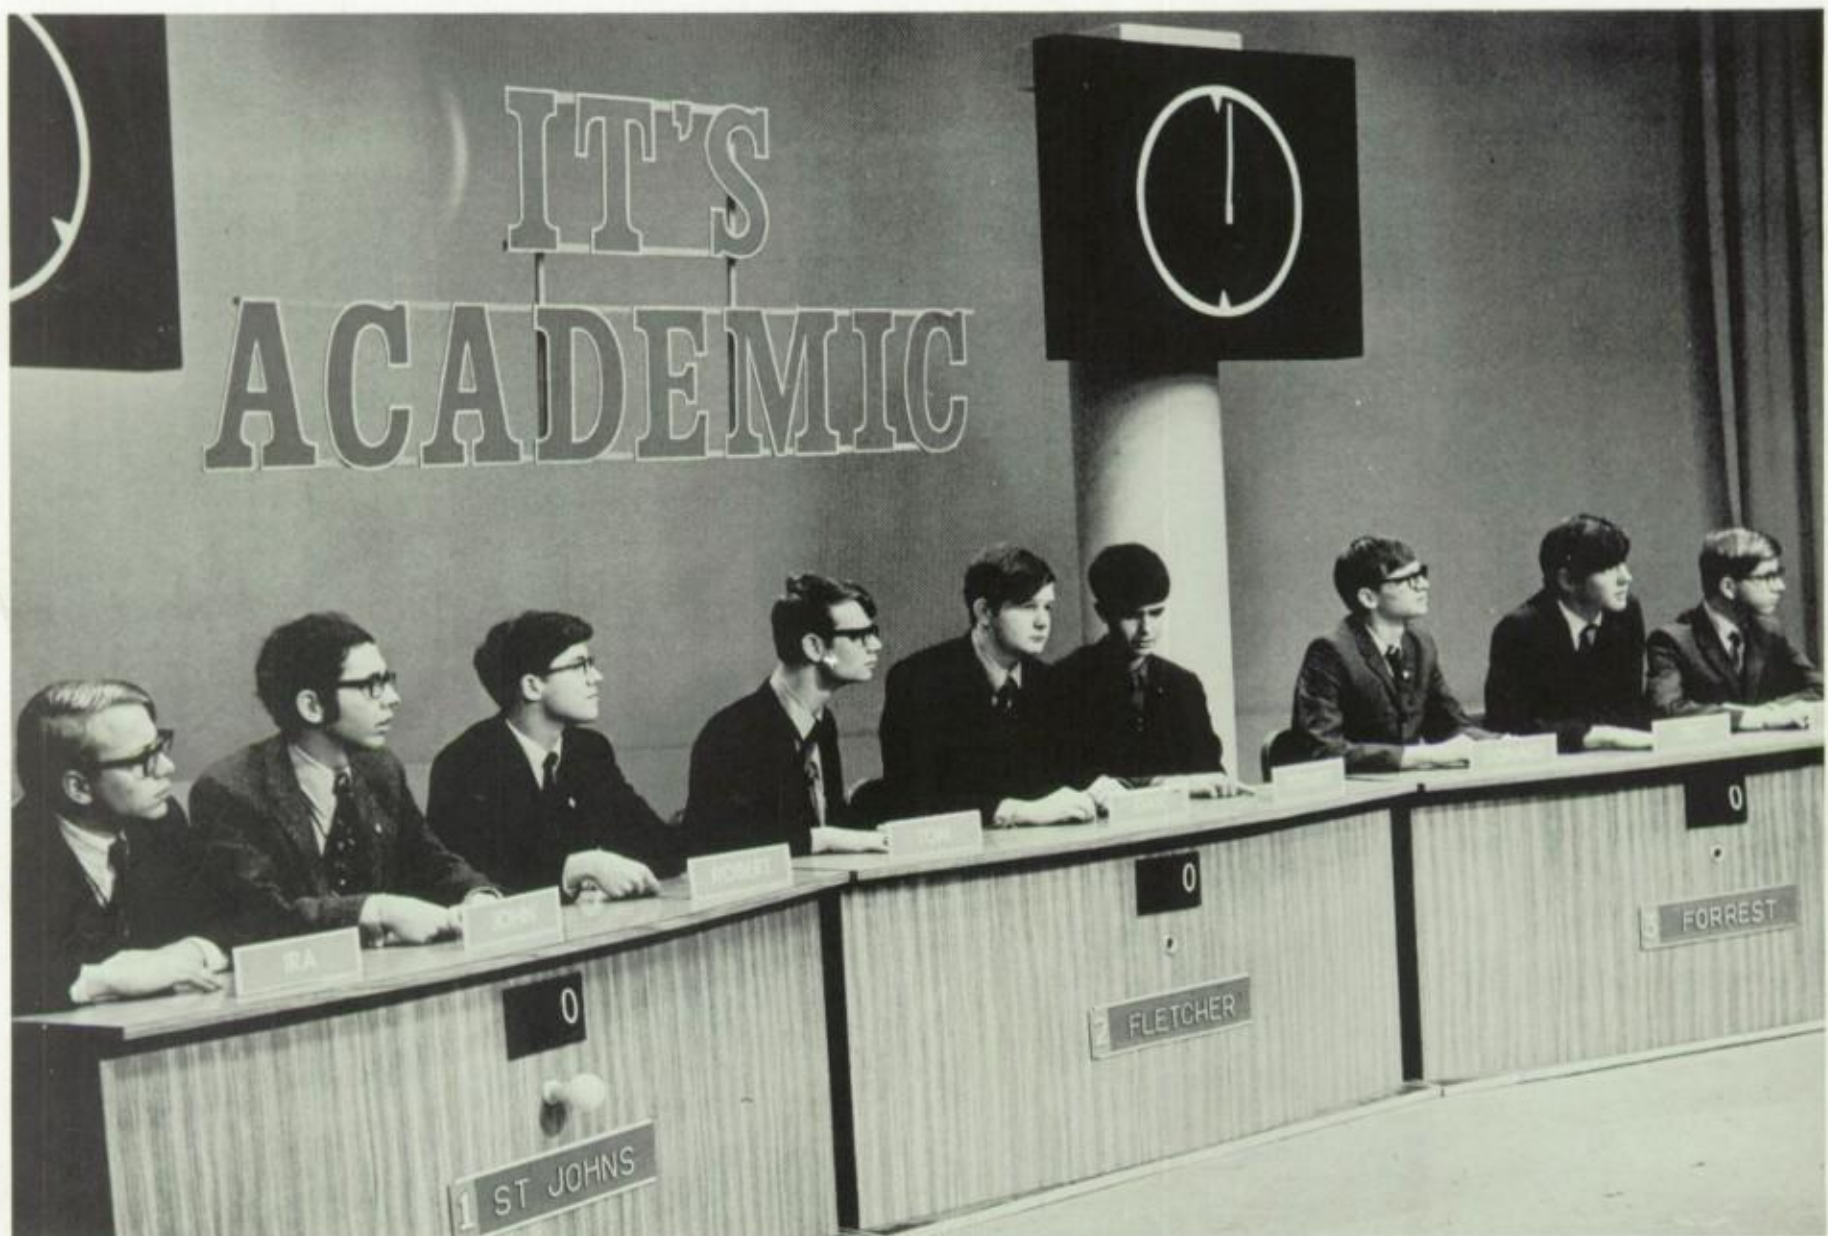

After working all day on the tropical island, Tim Feather and David Perry connect colored lights to accent the pond.

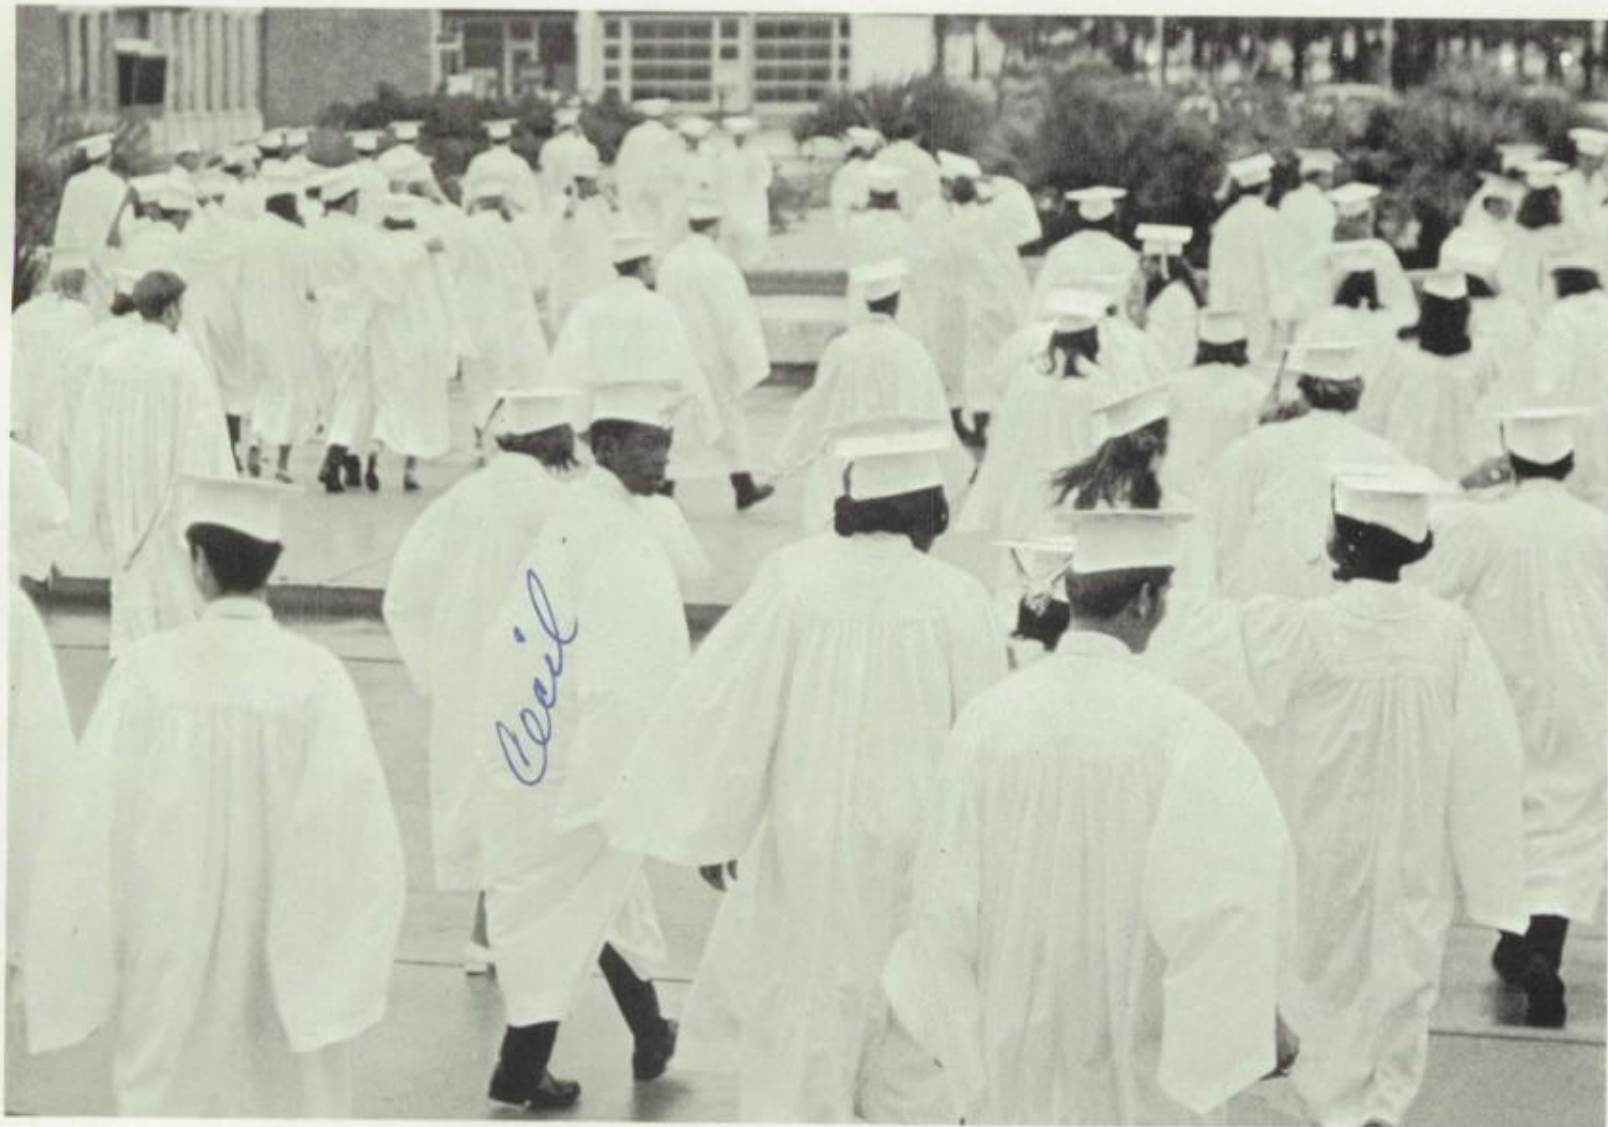

Year culminated with a winning It's Academic team and graduation day

Fletcher participates in It's Academic on Channel 12
Members: Dan Jacobson, Tom Barrow, Tom Grimes Won set of encyclopedias for school library Selected by Miss Stack in audition last year
June 6, 1970: the end of Senior Week Traditional white gowns replaced by black Gold cords, symbol of academic accomplishment Announcements and name cards ordered in C. H. class Afternoon ceremony held in Jacksonville Graduates inspired by faculty participation
Last collective experience, a cherished moment Beaming, diploma in hand, graduates shifted tassels

"It's Academic" team members Tom Barrow, Dan Jacobson, and Tommy Grimes listen attentively as their opponents from St. Johns and Forrest are announced, before going on to win another match. Quick responses and team effort enabled Fletcher to come out on top.

Overcast weather fails to dampen the spirits of last year's graduates as they exit from the Auditorium. Hurrying to turn in their caps and gowns, they greet friends, often for the last time, and make plans for a night of celebration.

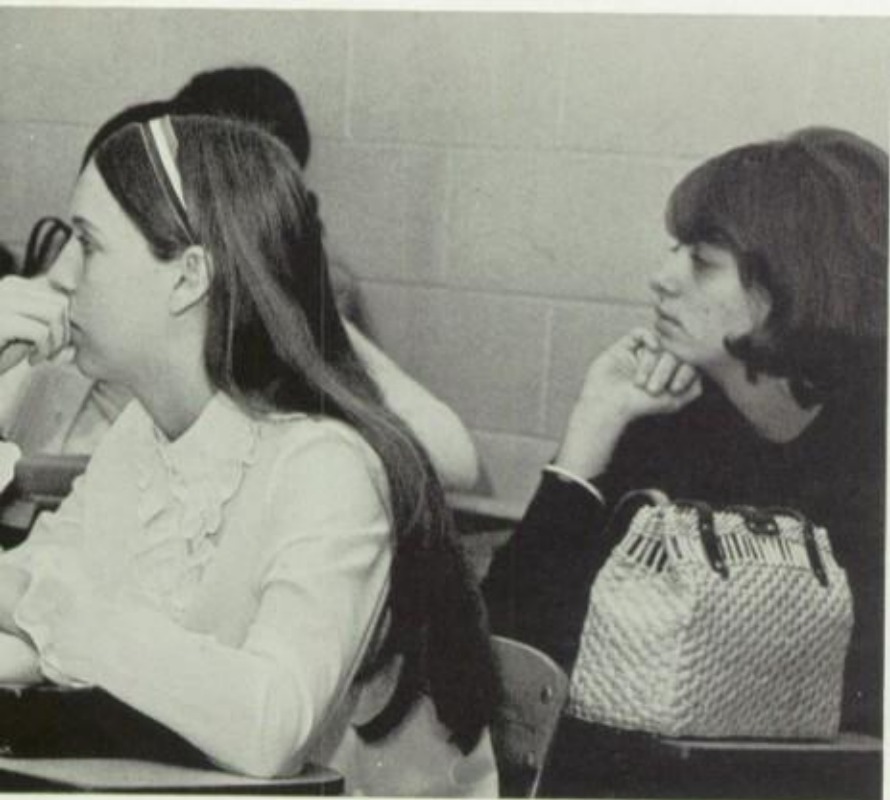

Crowded conditions at previous graduations in the Jacksonville Beach Auditorium forced friends and relatives to stand in the aisles to watch the ceremony.

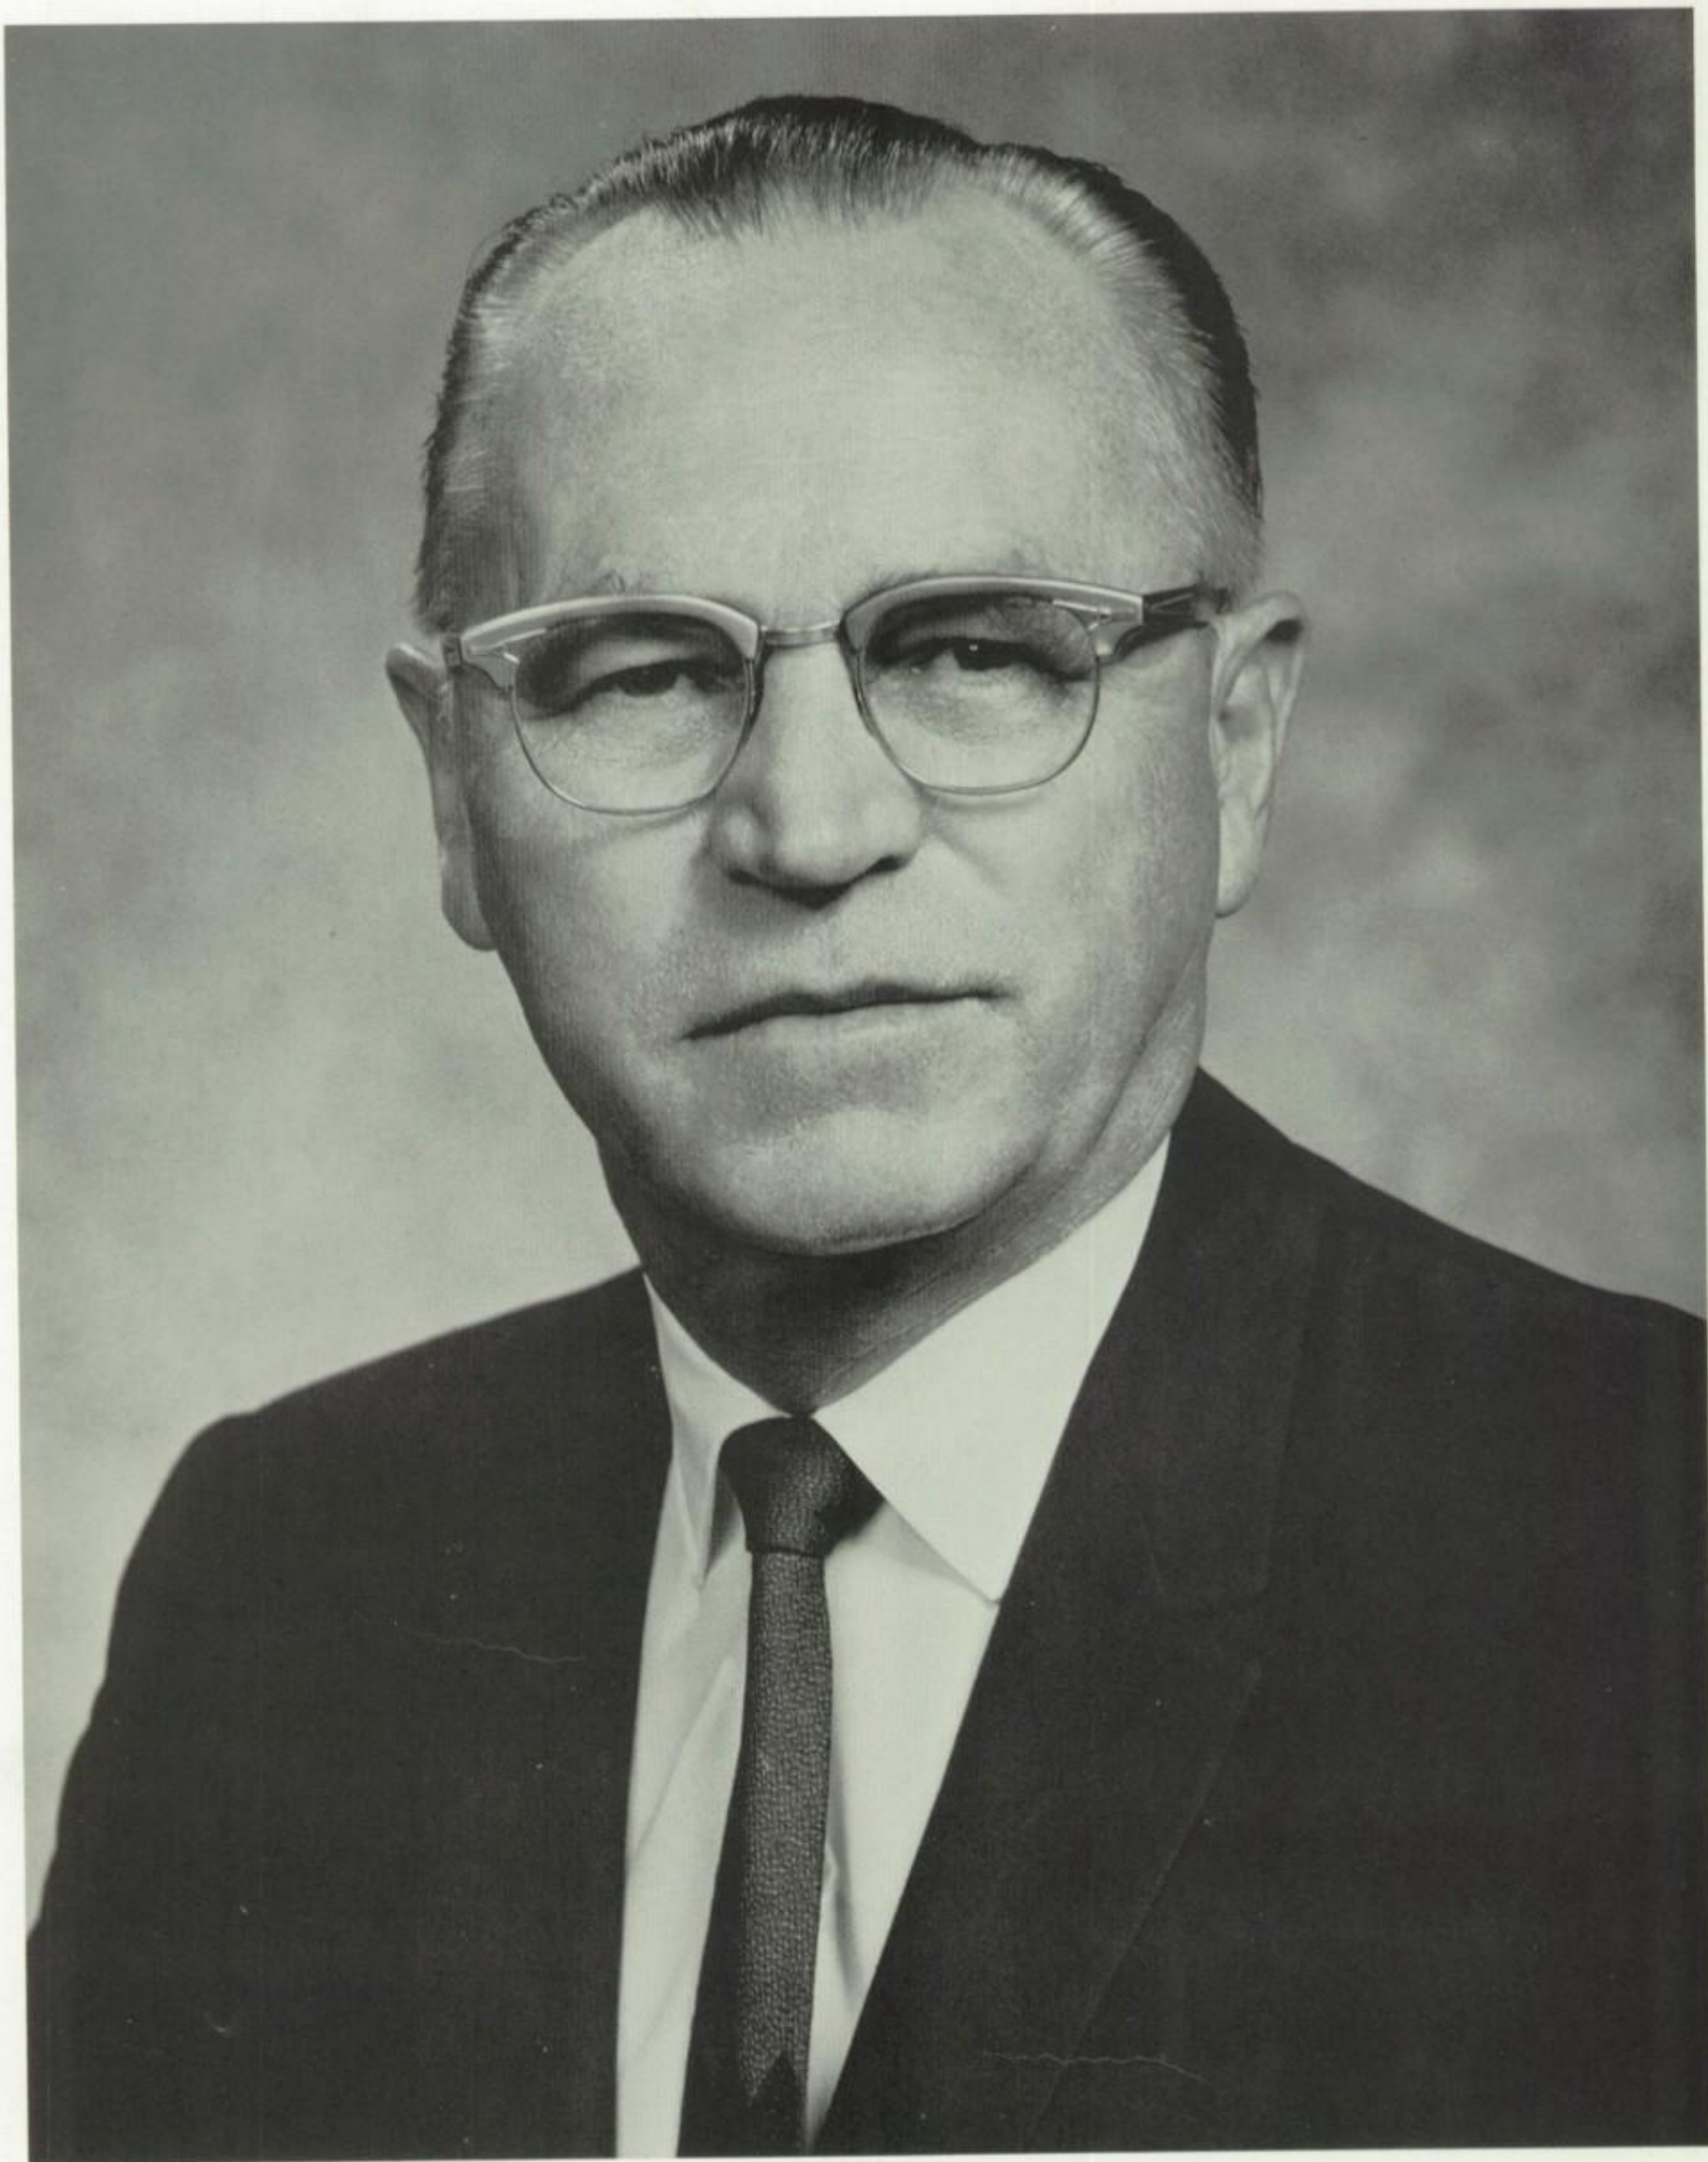

ACADEMICS

Dr. Cecil Hardesty, Superintendent the Duval County School System

School Board's effects reach Fletcher with speed compelling integration and a stricter dress code

New School Superintendent Dr. Cecil Hardesty

Delta is

- visiting children at the Juvenile Shelter on fall Saturdays
- hot cider, Tim and Al's background guitar, at an after-hours coffee-house
- collecting money for hurricane victims on Saturday morning, working for the Elks
- issues and arguments overcome by united concern for Delta
- the glitter and tradition of the unforgettable snowball
- a kid-again Halloween party
- taking care of children for low-income working mothers
- Spirit Night and ordering blue jerseys, both part of Delta's heritage
- Surprise Breakfasts, eating doughnuts in a nightgown miles from home—at 6 AM
- election of officers, a time of reflection on Delta's purpose
- the banquet, emotional moment when Delta's heritage passes on
- Heather Buik—triangles drawn on dirty car windows, Delta cookies, a year of concern and leadership

Knowing myself and the goal I am trying to reach gives me the strength to continue on in high school and maybe attend some junior college in the state of Fla. A lot of my friends I have known them since, the days of Pigtales and Santa Clause and I would like to continue knowing them and being their friends people like Cynthia, Sandra, Carolyn, Elaine, Willie Joel, Priscilla, LaVerne etc. and many more. We will have graduate in the class of '72" if every thing goes as it is planned. My teachers whom, I still remembers were Mrs. Bean, Jackson, Hintly, Mrs. Muldrew, Mr. Williams, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Thompson, Thomas, Bass, Cross, Anderson, Mr. Howard, Mrs. Taylor all of whom I have enjoyed because without the help of them and myself willing I couldn't have made it this far in life or school. For that Matt.
